Note from the Principal...

Dear Families,

I hope you all had a nice week. Things were good here at TRMMS. I am proud to report that our mindset scores have risen from cycle 1 to cycle 2, so the kids are making the changes they need to in order to be successful. We also have filled three boxes of Halloween candy to be sent to US soldiers. Two Rivers kids are great!

Please note that there is no school on Tuesday. We will all be here working on professional development for the adults, but there is no school for students. Also, if you know anyone who is interested in applying to our school for the next school year, we are holding a recruiting open house Thursday night. This is not something you need to attend, but feel free to spread the word!

Have an enjoyable weekend,

Jill Wnuk
 Principal
